

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JUAN F. BERMUDEZ L.,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE WESTIN ST. FRANCIS HOTEL,

Defendant.

Case No. 16-cv-00257-EDL

CASE MANAGEMENT AND PRETRIAL ORDER FOR JURY TRIAL

Following the Case Management Conference held on June 14, 2016, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16, the following case management and pretrial order is entered:

1. TRIAL DATE

a. Jury trial will begin on September 11, 2017 at 8:30 A.M. in Courtroom E, 15th Floor, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94102. Should a daily transcript and/or realtime reporting be desired, the parties shall make arrangements with Debra Campbell, Court Reporter Supervisor, at (415) 522-2079 or Debra_Campbell@cand.uscourts.gov, at least 14 days prior to the trial date.

b. The length of the trial will be not more than 7 days.

2. DISCOVERY

a. All non-expert discovery shall be completed no later than April 11, 2017. There will be no further non-expert discovery after that date except by order of the Court for good cause shown. Motions to compel non-expert discovery must be filed within the time limits contained in Civil Local Rule 26-2.

b. Initial expert disclosures shall be made no later than June 13, 2017. Rebuttal expert disclosures shall be made no later than June 27, 2017. All treating physicians who

1 will provide opinion testimony beyond that which can be provided by a lay person must be
2 disclosed as expert witnesses, but they need not prepare expert reports unless ordered to do so by
3 the Court.

4 c. All expert discovery shall be completed no later than July 11, 2017. There
5 will be no further expert discovery after that date except by order of the Court for good cause
6 shown. Motions to compel expert discovery must be filed within the time limits contained in Civil 7 Local Rule 26-2.

8 d. Rule 26(e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires all parties to 9 supplement or correct their initial disclosures, expert disclosures, pretrial disclosures, and
10 responses to discovery requests under the circumstances itemized in that Rule, and when ordered
11 by the Court. The Court expects that the parties will supplement and/or correct their disclosures
12 promptly when required under that Rule, without the need for a request from opposing counsel.
13 In addition to the general requirements of Rule 26(e)(1), the parties will supplement and/or 14 correct all previously made disclosures and discovery responses 28 days before the fact
15 discovery cutoff date.

16 e. Pursuant to Civil L.R. 37-1(b), telephone conferences are available to 17 resolve disputes during a discovery event, such as a deposition, where the resolution during the 18 event likely would result in substantial savings of expense or time.

19 f. Privilege logs. If a party withholds information that is responsive to a 20 discovery request, and is otherwise discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, by 21 claiming that it is privileged, or protected from discovery under the attorney work product doctrine
22 or any other protective doctrine (including, but not limited to, privacy rights), that party shall 23 prepare a "privilege log" (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)) setting forth the privilege relied upon and 24 specifying separately for each document or for each category of similarly situated documents:

- 25 1. The name and job title or capacity of the author;
- 26 2. The name and job title or capacity of each recipient;
- 27

3. The date the document was prepared and, if different, the date(s) on which it was sent to or shared with persons other than its author(s);
4. The title and description of the document;
5. The subject matter addressed in the document;
6. The purpose(s) for which it was prepared or communicated; and
7. The specific basis for the claim that it is privileged.

The privilege log will be produced as quickly as possible, but no later than 14 days after the discovery responses are due (in a rolling production, 14 days after each set of documents is produced), unless the parties stipulate or the Court orders otherwise in a particular case.

g. In responding to requests for documents and materials under Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, all parties shall affirmatively state in a written response served on all other parties the full extent to which they will produce materials and shall, promptly after the production, confirm in writing that they have produced all such materials so described that are locatable after a diligent search of all locations at which such materials might plausibly exist.

3. MOTIONS

The last day to file a motion, or stipulation and proposed order, to join other parties shall be July 14, 2016.

The last day to file a motion, or stipulation and proposed order, to amend the pleadings shall be July 14, 2016.

The last day for hearing dispositive motions shall be May 30, 2017. Dispositive motions shall be served and filed no later than thirty-five (35) days prior to the scheduled hearing date. Briefing shall be in compliance with Civil Local Rule 7-3.

4. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION/SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

The parties are referred to a randomly assigned magistrate judge for the purpose of engaging in a settlement conference, to take place within 90 days.

(i) Undisputed Facts. A plain and concise statement of all relevant facts not reasonably disputable, as well as which facts parties will stipulate for incorporation into the trial record without the necessity of supporting testimony or exhibits.

(ii) Disputed Factual Issues. A plain and concise statement of all disputed factual issues which remain to be decided.

(iii) Agreed Statement. A statement assessing whether all or part of the action may be presented upon an agreed statement of facts.

(iv) Stipulations. A statement of stipulations requested or proposed for pretrial or trial purposes.

(c) Disputed Legal Issues.
Without extended legal argument, a concise statement of each disputed point of law concerning liability or relief, citing supporting statutes and decisions, and any procedural or evidentiary issues.

(d) Trial Preparation.
(i) Witnesses to Be Called. With regard to witnesses disclosed pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3)(A), a brief statement describing the substance of the testimony to be given.
(ii) Estimate of Trial Time. An estimate of the number of hours needed for the presentation of each party's case, indicating possible reductions in time through proposed stipulations, agreed statements of facts, or expedited means of presenting testimony and exhibits.

- (iii) Use of Discovery Responses. Designate excerpts from discovery that the parties intend to present at trial, other than solely for impeachment or rebuttal, from depositions specifying the witness with page and line references, from interrogatory answers, or from responses to requests for admission.

(e) Trial Alternatives and Options.

- (i) Settlement Discussion. A statement summarizing the status of settlement negotiations and indicating whether further negotiations are likely to be productive.
- (ii) Amendments, Dismissals. A statement of requested or proposed amendments to pleadings or dismissals of parties, claims or defenses.
- (iii) Bifurcation, Separate Trial of Issues. A statement of whether bifurcation or a separate trial of specific issues is feasible and desired.

(f) Miscellaneous.

Any other subjects relevant to the trial of the action or material to its just, speedy and inexpensive determination.

- (2) Serve and file trial briefs, motions in limine (including any motion regarding the qualifications or testimony of any expert witness), proposed voir dire questions, jury instructions, verdict forms and

1 excerpts from discovery that will be offered at trial (include a copy
2 of the deposition testimony or admission). The parties shall submit
3 proposed jury instructions jointly. If there are any instructions on 4 which the parties cannot agree, those instructions may be submitted
5 separately;

6 (3) Serve and file an exhibit setting forth the qualifications and 7 experience of each expert witness;

8 (4) Serve and file a list of each party's exhibits by numbers 1-500
9 (plaintiff) or numbers 750-1250 (defendant), including a brief statement describing the substance
10 and purpose of each exhibit and the name of the sponsoring witness;

11 (5) Exchange exhibits which shall be premarked (plaintiff shall use
12 numbers 1-500; defendant shall use numbers 750-1250) and tabbed. Exhibits shall be three-hole
13 punched and shall be submitted in binders. Each exhibit shall be marked on the front page or on 14 the back of the last page with the information contained in Exhibit A to this Order; and

15 (6) Deliver two sets of all premarked exhibits to chambers (exhibits are 16 not to be filed). The two sets of premarked exhibits shall be for Court use only. The parties shall 17 bring a third set of their trial exhibits to trial to witnesses.

18 No party shall be permitted to call any witness or offer any exhibit in its case in chief that 19 is not disclosed in its pretrial statement, exchanged with opposing counsel, and delivered to the 20 Court, by the above deadline, without leave of the Court and for good cause.

21 d. At least (10) days prior to the pretrial conference, after meeting and 22 conferring in a good faith attempt to resolve any objections, counsel and/or parties shall serve and
23 file: (1) any objections to exhibits or to the use of deposition excerpts or other discovery; (2) any
24 objections to non-expert witnesses; (3) any objection to proposed voir dire questions, jury
25 instructions and verdict forms that the parties have been unable in good faith to resolve; (4) any 26 opposition to a motion in limine. No replies shall be filed.

e. All motions in limine and objections shall be heard at the pretrial conference.

6. JURY TRIAL

a. Counsel shall submit an agreed upon set of voir dire questions to be posed by the Court. Any voir dire questions on which counsel cannot agree may be submitted separately. Counsel shall be allowed brief follow-up voir dire after the Court's questioning.

b. The following jury instructions from the Manual of Model Civil Jury Instructions for the Ninth Circuit (2007 Edition) shall be given absent objection: 1.1-1.2, 1.6-1.14, 1.18, 2.11. Counsel shall submit jointly an agreed upon set of case specific instructions, using the Ninth Circuit Manual where appropriate. Do not submit duplicates of those listed above. Any instructions on which counsel cannot agree may be submitted separately. Each requested instruction shall be typed in full on a separate page with citations to the authority upon which it is based and a reference to the party submitting it. A second blind copy of each instruction and verdict form shall also be submitted, omitting the citation to authority and the reference to the submitting party.

7. All documents filed with the Clerk of the Court shall list the civil case number followed by the initials "EDL." One copy shall be clearly marked as a chambers copy. Chambers copies shall be three-hole punched at the left side, suitable for insertion into standard binders. In addition, all proposed jury instructions, motions in limine, forms of verdict and trial briefs shall be accompanied by a CD or USB flash drive containing a copy of the document in Microsoft Word format (*.docx).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
